Spain Says She Will Search American Vessels Americans Say She Wont-There the Trouble Lies

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Affairs between the United States and Spain are shaping themselves or the Spanish government is forcing them to a point where it seems likely that this country will be compelled to announce its exact attitude toward Spain and the patriots who are struggling for liberty in Cuba.

In Premier Sagasta's answer to the offer of this government, made through Minister Woodford, of our kindly offices to aid in bringing about a settlement of the war in Cuba, Spain says in effect that she is much obliged but she is will attend to her own affairs in her own way. The note from Spain accuses us of aiding and abetting the Cuban cause. Then follows a proclamation of the right to search American vessels for contraband of war. The administration has already indicated that under no circumstances, will it permit American vessels to be searched. The President will refer the matter to Congress where there will be no dawdling and no mincing words. Meantime both countries are preparing for action. General Alger has already begun preparations for the enlistment of a hundred artillerymen for the coast defense service.

THE MANAGERS SAY.

He Tells What They Could Do "If it Were Possible."

Guilford College, N. C., Nov. 5.

Editor Telegram:—Much surprise was manifested among the football team and students of Guilford College by the article in the Telegram of last evening concerning the game with Greensboro recently and also a prospective game with the Y. M. C. A. team of Winston.

First as to those "unusual concessions," they claim to have given up in the game, I will say there was none. The only point of contention in the game was in regard to the ball to be used. The Greensboro team wanted to play with an old ball which was stretched entirely out of shape. Mr. Sapp the Greensboro umpire rendered a decision that the Guilford ball was official and it was fair to all that the game be played with it. The Greensboro team admitted the fairness of the decision. In regard to a Winston game I will say that they wrote us for a game but our faculty did not grant us permission to play them.

Challenges from Wilmington, Charlotte and Winston have been declined since our Greensboro game on account of a regulation of the faculty. The Guilford team is in much better condition now than at the Greensboro game and were it possible to meet again we could make a much larger score against Greensboro.

Our team in the recent game was materially weakened by our having to play four substitutes. This accounts for the small score against them.

We want it understood that we are not afraid of the Greensboro team and were it possible for us to play we would willingly do so.

H. C. PETTY, Manager
Guilford College Football Team.

[Precisely so. The ball was official. None the less Greensboro yielded, at the umpire's request, her unquestioned right to furnish the ball. The contention was childish at the time and the above shows it childish still. We print it that no injustice may be claimed. We were informed that Guilford was to play Winston by members of the Greensboro team. We are pleased that the information was not correct. There might be differences of opinion as to the cause of the "small score" and differences of opinnion as to the good taste of the "we could make a much larger score" but we pass that by."]

THE CONVENTION

Of Sunday Schools for Guilford County Today.

There was a small attendance at the Guilford county Sunday school convention at West Market street church, this city today.

It seems that for some years the county Sunday school convention has been allowed to go down and this was an effort to revive the movement. A great many of the Sunday schools were not represented.

The President, J. R. Mendenhall, made a short talk at the opening, and called for the election of a secretary, whereupon Rev. J. F. McCulloch was unanimously chosen.

It was an interesting, if not a largely attended convention. The discussions were pithy and pointed and calculated to aid and assist those who are engaged in and interested in Sunday school work. We hope that much good has been accomplished and as President Mendenhall said in his opening talk, that those who are at work may be enabled to do better work.

Following the morning session came a good dinner which had been prepared and served to the delegates and friends of Sunday school work at Bogart's hall. The reporter was just too late on the scene to get dinner, but that it was of excellent quality and of abundant quantity was evidenced by the fragments left of which there was more than twelve basketsful.

The afternoon session was opened by a song and praise service. J. R. Mendenhall was re-elected president and Rev. J. F. McCullock was elected secretary and treasurer for the ensuing year. An executive committee was also elected in whose hands the matter of selecting a place for the next annual meeting was left, it being decided by the convention to hold the meeting in Greensboro.

As in the forenoon session the discussions were entertaining and instructive.

The Suit Compromised.

The case of Hanna Shaw vs. the Southern railway, which was noted sometime since, as being transferred under a new ruling from the Federal to the State court has been compromised.

Attorney D. Schenck, Jr., reached an agreement with the general counsel of the road by which several thousand dollars will be paid his client as a basis for the settlement.

OHIO CONTEST IS ENDED

The Complexion of the Assembly is Now Definitely Known,

HAVEMEYER RESTING QUIETLY

Could Not Quite Have Appendicitis After All—Richard Croker is Also Nearly Recovered.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—The contest for the control of the legislature is considered as ended today. The official counting in some counties will continue next week. There has been such close watching that no material changes are expected. The indications are that the Senate will be made up of nineteen democrats and seventeen republicans; the House of fifty-one democrats and fifty-eight republicans, giving a republican majority of five on a joint ballot. There may be several contested seats; they cannot be considered until the Legislature meets on the first Monday in January.

HAVEMEYER IS BETTER.

Greenwich, Conn., Nov. 6.—Havemeyer passed a good night and is on the road to recovery. Only one physician is in attendance and the danger from blood poisoning is passed. The patient is still very weak and is confined to bed but takes nourishing food in small quantities.

RICHARD CROKER AROSE.

New York, Nov. 6.—Richard Croker has almost recovered from his indisposition. He arose early this morning and will leave for the South, where he will take a vacation, accompanied by William Astor Chanler and A. Bird Gardiner. Their destination is being kept secret that the holiday may not be marred by importunate office seekers.

HENRY WATTERSON IN ATLANTA

Will be at the State Normal on Next Saturday Night.

Last night in the presence of one of the largest gatherings ever assembled in the hall of the Y. M. C. A., Hon. Henry Watterson, of Kentucky, delivered his famous lecture on Abraham Lincoln. It was a master piece of eloquence and frequently during the delivery of the lecture the feelings of the audience mounted to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. * * As the graceful figure of the eloquent son of Kentucky appeared in full stature before the audience was greeted with loud and prolonged applause. In the audience were many of Atlanta's foremost citizens. All professions were represented and the audience in the audience itself, representing every phase of political thought, was a splendid ovation to the speaker.—Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution, October 30, 1895. adv

Centenary Epworth League.

The Centenary Epworth League held its monthly literary and social gathering at the residence of Mr. J. W. McNairy on Arlington street last night. The subject for the evening was Oliver Wendell Holmes. An interesting program was rendered by Misses Alma Winningham, Ruby Glascock, Gertrude Smith and Messrs. W. I. Underwood and T. A. Glascock. Miss Marietta Stockard gave a comic recitation by special request, which created much amusement. The rest of the evening was spent in pleasant social conversation. Delightful refreshments were also served and enjoyed by all. Miss Carolyn McNairy was the graceful and charming hostess of the occasion.

Banquet of D. O. K. K.

Those in attendance report the D. O. K. K. banquet at Winston last night as a social, verbal and gastronomic success of magnitude. The initiation of candidates lasted fram 7:30 to 11 o'clock. The banquet began at 12 and lasted to 3 and while it was a "dry" banquet from a temperance point of view, those present did not suffer by reason of it. There was a fine menu and speeches witty and eloquent. D. Schenck, Jr., was among the speakers.

New Bracelets, Whistles and Clubs.

Through the generosity and forethought of Chief of Police R. M. Rees, the entire Greensboro police force are now equipped with new handcuffs, new whistles and new billies. The bracelets are of the latest and best model and very strong, and the whistles and billies are a big improvement over the old ones. The officers are proud of their new equipment.

POINTS FROM HIGH POINT.

Personal and Local Affairs Briefly Mentioned.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Nov. 6, '97.

Mrs. W.G. Brown for a viist to Lexington today.

N. H. Slaughter has fitted up his reading room at the Jarrell Hotel very neatly indeed. Uncle Nick knows how to please the boys of the road.

Sen Overman, of Washington, is in city today.

Stewart Cramer, of the Charlotte machine works, is in High Point.

J. S. Ferree, of the revenue service, boarded the train here today carrying a Virginia moonshiner to jail. Will Westmorland is the man's name. It was last spring that he shot an officer who attempted to seize his still. There were three of the officers and they were all put to flight. The officers have been after him ever since. He was captured by Mr. Ferree, of Asheboro.

Monday Night.

"The Burglar," a four-act comedy drama, by Augusta Thomas, will be the attraction at the Academy of Music Monday night November 8th. The impression created by the title of the play is somewhat misleading to the unknowing. The comedy is truly of that style of dramatic composition better known as the society drama, and is lightened with touches of pure comedy, which are always acceptable. The happiness of a home is marred by the fact that the husband and father turns out to be a burglar, escapes arrest by compromise, and goes away. He is captured, and in escaping is supposed to be shot, and is reported dead. The wife marries again. The burglar visits the home of his wife, not knowing it is such, and is discovered by his own little daughter, whereupon ensues one of the most original scenes ever seen on the stage. adv

Another Straw.

We are informed by a man who knows that the freight business has increased so at the Southern, that whereas the old freight shed was sufficient for both the transfer and Greensboro freight, that now the new freight shed, which is used for Greensboro freight only, is pushed to its full capacity, and the old shed, now used only as transfer work, is very much the same as 60 cars are transferred every twenty-four hours. This means hustle from the jump.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution tike this?

SATURDAY, NOV. 6, 1897.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

IT DEPENDS.

Some days since we referred to the fact that harmony did not abound at the organization of the "Young Republican League." Our good friend, the Winston Republican, takes us to task as follows:

"The Telegram is young and has not learned it all yet. It ought not to form its opinion of the Republican League meeting by its knowledge of Democratic State conventions, which are said to usually break up in a row, a fight or a foot race.

"But will the Telegram make the necessary correction and set its readers right! It ought not mislead its own people with sensational stuff."

Yes, we are young and have a great many things to learn, unfortunately, and very few things to unlearn, fortunately. Still we are older by some months than the League. It probably all depends on what is meant by harmony whether the League was harmonious. Our friend, the Republican, viwing it from the vantage point of a ripe experience, can doubtless very conscientiously term it harmonious. No heads were broken, no razors were flaunted and the police were not called in. It was a gathering of self-respecting young men and we did not mean to say that it demeaned itself otherwise.

Following the Democratic victory in Kentucky, Henry Watterson, of the Courier-Journal, expressed the policy of that paper as follows:

"The vote confirms the position of the conventiou that nominated Mr. Shackelford. It is so decisive in character as to leave nothing to conjecture. The issue, as it was made and has been fought out, was clear and explicit. We go to political annihilation with perfect composure, without a single resentment or regret. We shall continue to do business at the old stand precisely as if nothing had happened, relieved to be rid of all responsibility in party affairs; glad to go to the rear of the columns."

Which is picturesque but means nothing. The Courier-Journal is still at liberty to follow any line it may elect.

The Citizens Union charges that there was fraud in the New York election. That is new, and refreshing. The idea of bringing a charge of fraud against the dear old tiger! Of course he could not be expected to change his stripe when winter was so near at hand. Fraud is a mighty bad thing, but charges are also very cheap. Fraud can't account for that majority of 79,000.

When General Weyler is arrested by his home government it is to be hoped he will receive a good, big dose of his own medicine. The world will hardly weep whatever fate befall.

Mr. Cleveland's strictures on partisanship show how completely and permanently that gentleman has retired into the academic shades.

Not the least impalatable part of the Maryland slump will be necessity of being slathered with the Baltimore Sun's "We did it."

There is nothing so new in the situation that Tom Platt need say "We have met the enemy and we are theirs." A close scanning of Thomas's career will reveal the fact that during the greater part of it he has rested securely in the possession of the enemy.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

Mrs. Maxwell Scott, great-granddaughter of Sir Walter, has completed her story (Macmillan) of "The Making of Abbotsford, with incidents in Scottish History."

Paul Leicester Ford will contribute to the Christmas Atlantic a paper on "American Historical Novels." It will also contain Henry B. Filler's new Sicilian tale, "The Greatest of These."

Critic W. E. Henley declares of Robert Burns: "He was absolutely of his station and his time. The poor-living, lewd, grimy, free-spoken, ribald old Scotts' peasant came to a full, brilliant and even majestic close in his work."

Zola's third book of his Trilogy, "Paris," will soon begin its serial course. Zola remarked: "I hope when I am dead to be treated more justly. Then, perhaps, it will be recognized that I was neither a pessimist nor a corrupter."

Jules Verne's new stories are "Clovis DARDENDENTOR," a humorous tale of travel and adventure in Tunis, and "For the Flag," which relates the extraordinary adventures of a French inventor who imagined a diabolical engine of war that in its explosive effects surpasses anything in this direction ever conceived by mortal man.

The title of Captain Mahan's new volume is to be "The Interest of the United States in Sea Power—Present and Future." The titles of the chapters are as follows: I. "The United States Looking Outward;" II. "Hawaii and Our Sea Power;" III. "The Isthmus and Our Sea Power;" IV. "Anglo-American Alliance;" V. "Tne Future in Relation to American Naval Power;" VI. "Preparedness for Naval War;" VII. "A Twentieth Century Outlook;" VIII. "Strategic Features of the Gulf of Mexico and Caribbean Sea."

The Wake Forest Student for November is at hand. In material and make-up it has a decided literary tone and shows evidences of being edited carefully and well. In one thing the reviewer would commend it to the imitation of some other college monthlies—it is issued on time. While speaking of college monthlies it is noteworthy that the standard has been very greatly elevated within the past three or four years. The State is entirely without literary periodicals and it is a pity that the alumni of the various institutions do not aid more in the support of their magazines both by subscribing and contributing papers.

The opening paper is the "Battle of Sharpsburg" from the able pen of Justice Walter Clark. Justice Clark was a participant in that battle and writes therefore with vividness. There are three fairly good poems though some of them are open to the charge of being a little inconsequential but then Kipling's "Recessional" has been called inconsequential and the youthful poets are in good company. The table of contents is too long to give in detail but is exceedingly well selected and is free from the sophomoric essays that too often spoil the college magazine.

The Century for November is full of good things. To begin with there is a paper on "Strange Creatures of the Past," entertaining alike to the lay reader and the specialist. "Gallops" is fresh, unique and—short. There is, too, "Louis XVI and Marie-Antoinette," most pathetic of tragedies, "The Growth of Great Cities," apropos of Greater New York, and "Andree's Flight into then Uknown," timely enough. James Whitcomb Riley's "Rubaiyat of Doc Sifers" will please admirers of that poet (it is a serial) while "An Imperial Dream" is a new contribution to the sad fiasco of Maximilian in Mexico, the end of which was only the other day. Frank R. Stockton figures in the "Romance of a Mule Car" which is sufficient recommendation of the romance. Minister Terrell gives an interview with the Sultan and John Burrough explains the virtues of "Re-reading Books." Nobody can go amiss in this month's Century.

Weyler to be Tried.

Madrid, Nov. 5.—The Spanish government has instructed all commanders of ports to keep strictest lookout for Weyler who is to be tried by court martial on account of the sentiments in his manifesto upon leaving Cuba.

Land Sale

By virtue of a mortgage deed executed by John Bethel and wife Fannie Bethel, on the 28th day of October, 1896, to J. W. Kerr, (since dead) and in consequence of a failure to pay the debt secured in said mortgage, I will sell to the highest bidder, for cash, at the court house door in Greensboro, N. C., on Saturday, December 4th, 1897, the lands described in said mortgage, butted and bouuded as follows:

Beginning on northeast corner of street on Main street leading to Greensboro, thence north 60 degrees east along westerly side of said street 10 1-3 poles, thence north 87 degrees west 14 1-2 poles, thence south 30 degrees west 10 1-6 poles to north side of said street, thence 87 degrees east with said street 14 poles to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less. There is reserved from this sale the lot out of this boundary heretofore sold to Frank Fields.

The above mortgage is recorded in book 102, page 707, in the office of the register of deeds, Nov. 4, 1897.

LAURA KERR, Executrix of J. W, Kerr, deceased.

PRACTICAL ECONOMY

How She Won Her Reputation

for good cooking was by using the best grade of coal. In the right kind of coal lies more of the philosophy of cooking than a person is aware of. Try it by ordering your coal from the Greensboro Ice & Coal Company, where nothing but the best grades, well-screened, is handled, and you will never be disappointed by underdone cooking.

The American Water Color Society of New York offers a $300 prize for the most meritorious original water color painting never exhibited publicly in that city, which will be shown at its exhibition in February next.

Star of the Evening.

Speaking of the presentation of "The Diplomats" at Winston night before last, the Winston Sentinel has this to say of the accomplished Greensboro young lady who played the part of "Gloriana:"

But the star of the evening, as well as of the play, was Miss Lillian Staples, of the Greensboro Dramatic Club. Miss Staples is an elocutionist wearing honors from St. Mary's and from the Boston Conservatory. She has beauty and those charming graces that make her seem perfectly at home on the stage and her impersonation of "Gloriana, the Young Widow," was more like a professional than an amateur.

Traffic Delayed By Fog.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 5—Fog has greatly delayed traffic, completely tying up some ferries and kept ocean steamers and sound boats at anchor outside of the city. None of them were heard from up to ten o'clock this morning. No anxiety is felt however.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discouery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Are You Subject to Attacks of COLIC?

If So, There is No Need to Suffer.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

WILL CURE YOU

For several years I had been subject to severe attacks of cramp colic. Sometimes they would last me an hour and hardly a week passed that I did not have several attacks. I tried everything that was suggested, but found no relief. During these attacks the muscles of the arm and leg were terribly drawn and the whole body was cramped. I was advised to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, which gave me relief at once, but not until I had taken two dozen bottles was I entirely cured. It was eight years ago since I took the remedy, and I have not had a touch of the trouble since.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Rev. J. W. Lee went to Raleigh on the noon train.

W. T. Stewart and R. Lindheim go to New York tonight.

Fletcher Barbee, of High Point, is spending the afternoon in the city.

The road machine is at work on Jackson and Spring Garden streets.

Mr. Michael Schenck, of the Faculty of Oak Ridge Institute, was here today.

G. D. Stutts, of Graham, was in the city today and subscribed for THE TELEGRAM.

Miss Sadie Sloan, of Winston, came down to spend some time with Miss Lottie Peyton.

R. P. Gorrell is building a new store house, corner West Bragg and Bilbro streets.

Brick have been been hauled to the corner of Jackson street and Morehead avenue. We hope this means a new house.

A lot of the furniture of the Keeley Institute, the old beds, mattresses, washstands, etc., were sold today at auction at the courthouse.

The old Armfield house, on East Gaston St., is being torn down to make way for a new house. Hon. John L. King will build there.

Call on McClamroch Bros. for grates and mantles. Their buyer has just returned and they have some special bargains to offer. See penny column for ad.

Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, was here today returning home from Ralelgh where he has been to appear in a suit before the Railroad Commission.

W. C. McLean is to build still another handsome house opposite his residence on N. Forbis street. W. C. Bain is the contractor, and Pitts & Bain furnished the lumber.

Harry C. Martin is preparing to move his Fire and Life Insurance office to the second floor of the Methodist Protestant Publishing Company's building, opposite McAdoo house.

Dr. Chas. D. McIver and John A. Barringer returned this morning from Hillsboro. At chambers last night Judge Adams refused to grant the restraining order asked for by L. M. Stewart.

M. L. Harris is opening a new grocery store on Lewis street, in the new and handsome Groome building. Mr. Harris has moved here from Davidson county and we hope he will prosper in our thriving city.

A new cross-over switch has been placed in the yard of the Southern between the lower track and the main line just above the bridge over the C. F. & Y. V. This avoids the necessity of trains backing out above the coal chute.

We call special attention today to the new ad. of the Guilford Department Store. They have an elegant line of wraps on consignment which they will only have on hand a day or two longer. Call at once and see them before this splendid opportunity is lost.

Chic. Darlington, who has charge of L. Banks Holt's poultry farm, passed through today from Winston with the finest exhibit of poultry, etc., ever displayed in North Carolina. This exhibit formed a special and attractive feauture of the Winston fair which has just closed.

THE TELEGRAM force was unable to attead the Sunday school convention today, either at the church or at the hall where the dinner was served, but with all our hearts we desire to return thanks for some of the best cake it has been our good fortune to stick a tooth in. Again, thanks.

The colored football team returned from Raleigh last night. The Raleigh team won the game by a score of 24 to 0. The Greensboro boys say the Raleigh fellows doubled teams on them, that is, put in fresh men in the weakening places, while one of Greensboro's team was disabled and they had to play with only ten men.

Prof. J. M. Bandy went up to the Beaver Creek section this morning to look after the road force up there. On Monday he will go down to the Freeman's Mill neighborhood to make a survey of three or four miles of road in that section, which will be graded. Prof. Bandy is doing some excellent work on our county roads.

A Klondike at Your Door.

Owing to the approaching winter and the wear and tear incident to a trip to Klondike, the ladies of St. Barnabas' Church have annihilated space and other inconveniences and have placed the Klondike region within the reach of all. Go to the Rectory on the evening of Nov. 9th and stake out your claim. Work on some can be commenced at once. Don't forget the region—St. Barnabas' Rectory, corner North Elm and Price streets. Admission 10 cents. adv

GAME DIDN'T WORK.

A Slick Duck Cornered and Forced To "Ante."

There are slick games and slick ducks and there are beats and deadbeats and there are beats who get beat and there are beats who always beat the other fellow.

This time it was a fellow who was trying to beat his grocery bill and his house rent. M. Blomenfield, who has been conducting a second-hand clothing house in the Balsley old stand on South Elm street, had his goods and chattels packed and placed in the depot ready for shipment. Part of them were consigned to H. Blomenfield, Winston, and part of them to J. A. Adler, Newberry, S. C.

Now, it seems that the "shrewd" fellow was going away without adjusting a grocery bill with Vuncanon & Co., and was also leaving unpaid a rent bill due Mr. —— Wharton.

Yesterday morning he bought a ticket to Winston. Learning of his intent to skip, Messrs. Vuncanon and Wharton procured the proper document from 'Squire Pritchett and put an officer after him. He evidently got wind of the fact and did not appear again at the depot until night, when he was on hand ready to board the train.

The officer pulled his paper and the fellow twisted and squirmed but when he found it meant jail or money he forked over the necessary amount to settle the bills.

The thing was very nicely worked. It is not often that this particular class of dead beat meets his match, but this time the tables were turned.

The Bells of the Ball.

Greensboro had a contingent of young ladies at the big Winston ball last night and gentleman who was present says they were the bells of the ball, though that is no disparagement of the others. Why certainly; Greensboro young ladies are appreciated everywhere and always, at home and abroad. And he was a gentleman who should know.

Too Strong to Carry Coal.

Many a man who is strong enough to play golf all day, or "hold out" a hundred pounds finds a scuttle of coal too heavy to lift.

The trouble is that a great deal of coal is full of slate. Slate is heavy and it won't burn.

We sell coal that's all coal. A lump of it is lighter than a lump of slatey coal and there's a heap more heat in it,

SHOES

Do You Want?

Call at our store and answer the above question if you want a good winter pair of shoes.

C. M. Vanstory & Co.,

The Home of Fashion.

Men of fashion find our stock replete with nobbiest importations. Clothes are the outward expression of your taste. "Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy, but not expressed in fancy; rich—not gaudy, for the apparel oft proclaims the man." The truth is always the strongest argument. Pleasing our patrons makes life pleasant for us.

A Good Combination:

WEAR The looks of clothing may be a temporary availment, but if good service be not with them, they'll never please you.

FIT A poor fitting garment, no matter how the material, should not be worn by an up-to-date dresser.

STYLE A suit needs this to catch the eye and aid you in appearance.

PRICE Uniting the foregoing elements in clothing to sell at prices to suit the times is just exactly what we are doing.

A Taste of Winter.

Soon you will need something heavier in the furnishing line. Remember that while summer was here we were looking after your wants. All you have to do is to come see how well we have provided for you. With us you will find everything up-to-date. Not yesterday, but today, tomorrow.

Liberality and fair dealing, good merchandise and moderate prices, have been the corner-stone of our success.

Witchwork.

Those who come to us for Fall Shoes sometimes think it must be witchwork that makes it possible for us to fit them so quickly, perfectly and cheaply. Not a bit of it. It's not witchwork, but hard work, that does it.

While you were fishing and loafing and resting this summer, we were at work to get this Stock in shape—which work is what worked the witchwork.

For Example:

We are offering this week:

Ladies' Vici Kid, hand sewed button shoes, London toe, patent tip, B, C, D and E width, at $3.50, worth $5.00.

Ladies' cloth top button or lace shoes, patent tip, com. toe, C, D and E widths, sizes 1 to 7, at $2.50. This shoe would be cheap at $3.50.

We have a full line of Felt Slippers for men and women.
